November 21, 2002

Dear Ms. Parks:

I am writing in response to your letters of November 6, 2002. Amendments were filed for these reports on November 20, 2002.

These amendments add $ 64856.04 of debt on Schedule D for the April Quarterly and $ 25859.51 for the pre-primary report. This debt reflects the amount that the South Carolina Republican Party (SCGOP) federal account owes the SCGOP non-federal account for administrative and overhead expenses that were improperly disbursed from the non-federal account.

Reporting the disbursements that were done improperly in an amended Schedule H-4 would have made it impossible to reconcile the cash balance on line 8 of the Form 3X summary schedule. Therefore, in consultation with you, we were advised to report the correction of the improper disbursements reflecting only the debt on Schedule D.

The $ 9000 contribution on Schedule A, April Quarterly Report, from the Honorable Lindsey Graham is for election filing fees.

I trust that you will find this explanation satisfactory. If you require additional information or if we need to make further corrections please advise.

It is our sincere intent to respond to all FEC reporting requirements accurately and on time.

Sincerely,

Glen O'Connell
Treasurer
South Carolina Republican Party
